

The building focuses on renovations of the old Sacred Heart school for use by the parish and community. Progress to date include: